

To the Residents of the West Urbana Special Parking Zone:

The 2011 holiday season is upon us and the following enforcement policies are in place for the West Urbana Special Parking Zone:

Thanksgiving Week

No permit enforcement Monday, November 21st through Friday, November 25th, except for the following streets near the Urbana High School that will be enforced Monday, November 21st through Wednesday, November 23rd.

- 200 – 400 Blocks of Michigan
- 200 – 400 Blocks of Indiana
- 200 – 400 Blocks of Iowa
- 1000 – 1100 Blocks of Garfield
- 1000 – 1100 Blocks of Douglas
- 900 Block of Carle

U of I Break and Holiday Enforcement

No permit enforcement December 19, 2011 through January 16, 2012, excluding the streets near Urbana High School as noted below.

Holiday Enforcement – Urbana High School

Permit enforcement on the following streets near the Urbana High School on all scheduled school days. No permit enforcement December 19, 2011 through January 2, 2012:

- 200 – 400 Blocks of Michigan
- 200 – 400 Blocks of Indiana
- 200 – 400 Blocks of Iowa
- 1000 – 1100 Blocks of Garfield
- 1000 – 1100 Blocks of Douglas
- 900 Block of Carle

Zoning regulations, restricted, prohibited and disabled parking regulations will be enforced.

72 Hour Ordinance Enforcement

For residents who will be out of town and leaving a vehicle parked on-street for an extended time, please call our Parking Enforcement Supervisor at 328-8253 to request an exemption to the 72 hour ordinance, or drop by the Finance Office in the City Building and fill out a form in person.

The elected officials, administration and employees of the City of Urbana wish you a safe and happy holiday.

Elizabeth Beaty
Parking Administrator
(217) 384-2356