b. Strategic Visioning for Urbana Arts and Culture

Before discussion, Storm took a moment to recognize interns Nancy and Lorena from the CU Scholars program from the University of Illinois. Interns will present what they have worked on over the course of their spring internships at the next UACC meeting.

Storm was unable to send out the visioning survey mentioned at the last meeting.

Storm gave an update on the Arts Grant program. The program has been able to continue offering support to grantees regarding special event permitting and COVID guidelines. Storm also mentioned the grant program was able to host workshops and orientation virtually, and that she would like to continue this hybrid model moving forward.

Storm provided programmatic updates, which included categorizing what programs had been adapted virtually, were not affected, or needed to be temporarily cancelled due to the ongoing pandemic, as well as initiatives that emerged due to the pandemic. Storm mentioned the first in-person Arts and Culture Program since the pandemic began would be the outdoor Boneyard Chalk Art Contest, to be held during the 2021 Boneyard Arts Festival in June. The Arts and Culture program has also jointly applied for the Disability Aware Cities Program with Krannert Center for the Performing Arts, PACE, and AHS.

2021 priorities for the Arts and Culture program include: an Urbana Arts and Culture website and events calendar; a Public Arts directory (to include murals, sculpture, utility box murals, and poems on glass) accessible both in print and online; Imagine Urbana collaboration programming input; a collaborative quarterly meeting for activation and creative place-making; cross promotion of Arts and Economic Development Grant opportunities/relief programs.

Storm gave an update on initial planning next steps. The Arts and Culture program is still awaiting permit guidance based upon the Governor's Restore Illinois Plan, of which we are still in Phase 4. Outdoor events that are walkable, limited capacity, and required the use of masks, seem appropriate. Storm also hopes to collaborate with local businesses as they open for outdoor sales and events.

Storm ended with an update on key citywide festival dates: Boneyard Arts Festival (June 17 – 20), CU Black and African Arts Festival (Sept 18), Pygmalion (Sept. 23 – 25), CU Folk and Roots (Oct. 21 – 23), Kwanzaa 365 (Dec 6 – Jan 1, 2022), Urbana Sweetcorn Festival (typically 3rd or 4th weekend in August).

6. NEW BUSINESS

a. Approval of 2021 Regular Meeting Schedule

Sammann introduced the agenda item and asked if there was any discussion. There being no discussion, Sammann made a motion to keep the Urbana Arts and Culture Commission meeting on the second Tuesday of the month at 4:30pm online until such a time as it can resume at the City Building. Hedlund seconded. All present were in favor and the motion passed.

7. ANNOUNCEMENTS

Chair Sammann reminded the commissioners to return their Economic Interest Statement form to the City Clerk by April 23rd. A question was asked if it could be completed online, and Sammann responded no, the form needed to be emailed to the City Clerk.
