HOMEGROWN RESTAURANT CELEBRATES BUSINESS OPENING WITH RIBBON CUTTING

The City of Urbana will help celebrate the opening of Homegrown Restaurant with a ribbon cutting at 3:30 p.m. on Tuesday, March 8, 2022. The event will take place at 2600 S. Stone Creek Blvd., Urbana, the Atkins Golf Club.

Homegrown is a farm-to-table American cuisine restaurant owned by Ryan and Abbie Rogiers with a partnership with the University of Illinois. This is the Rogiers second restaurant. Homegrown prioritizes serving local products from local farmers. This spring, Homegrown will start its own small farm within Urbana's Stone Creek neighborhood that will supply much of its produce.

Currently, Homegrown is open on Tuesday through Saturday 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. Service will be extended soon to seven days a week that will include both lunch and dinner. Brunch will also be offered Saturday and Sunday. Homegrown is now open to the public per reservations only. For more information on services and the menu visit <http://www.eatathomegrown.com> or call 217-600-7137.
