Celebrate. Recognize. Protect.

How you can get involved

Let's work together to preserve Urbana's natural beauty

Urbana's trees are a source of shared pride in our community. With one of the most diverse urban forests in the Midwest, we can claim trees that are historic, unique, rare and one-of-a-kind specimens. So it's little wonder that Urbana is one of only 16 of the original 41 charter Tree City USA communities that have maintained the designation every year since 1976.

Now you can help celebrate, recognize and protect the most significant city, private and park district trees through the Legacy Tree Program, established by the Urbana City Council, by nominating a tree or donating to the program.

How the program works

Nomination. Any Urbana resident can nominate any tree in Urbana. Nomination forms are available online at www.urbanaininois.us/legacytrees and at the Urbana Public Works office at 706 S. Glover Street.

Consent. Participation in the Legacy Tree Program is voluntary, and the property owner must consent to having the tree evaluated and designated. If your tree is nominated, the City Arborist will contact you to seek written consent to evaluate and potentially designate your tree. If the tree is on public property, the Public Works Director or Park District Director must provide consent.

The City has adopted a formal process to follow when a property owner wishes to have his/her healthy tree taken out of the Legacy program. A process is also in place for removal of private property Legacy trees that are in poor health and decline beyond repair. Full details on both of these procedures are included in the Legacy Tree Owner's Participation Guide.

Evaluation. If the property owner of the nominated tree provides written consent to participate in the Legacy Tree Program, the City Arborist evaluates the tree, using the eight Legacy Standards Assessment criteria referenced in the "What is your favorite Urbana tree?" section, along with the following two additional assessments:

- Locale Assessment to ensure the tree is visible from the public right-of-way and located far enough from overhead utilities; and
- Condition Assessment to ensure the tree's health meets the established standards of the Program.

The City Arborist then submits his/her Legacy Tree assessment findings on the nominated tree to the Urbana Tree Commission, along with a recommendation on whether the nominated tree should be designated as a Legacy Tree. Full details of the assessment criteria can be found online at www.urbanaininois.us/legacytrees and at the Urbana Public Works office at 706 S. Glover Street.

Designation. Upon receiving the City Arborist's recommendation and the completion of any individual inspections, the Urbana Tree Commission will then consider whether the nominated tree qualifies under the Legacy Tree Assessment. The Commission may designate the nominated tree as a Legacy Tree by a majority vote of all voting members who are present and voting.

For designated Legacy Trees on private property, the property owner will receive:

- recognition in annual publication and on the City's Legacy Tree Walking Tour
- free tree assessment and tree care advice from the City Arborist
- 5 yards of free mulch
- recognition certificate
- other potential benefits granted by the City of Urbana

How you can support the program

With financial support from you and other community tree advocates, the City of Urbana can cover the cost of identification for all Legacy Trees as part of its natural inventory, feature them on a city-wide map accessible on the City website, produce plaques commemorating each Legacy Tree; develop a Legacy Tree locator app; and plant unique and indigenous trees.
