FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

December 21, 2022

URBANA BUSINESS SERVICES LIMITED DUE TO STORM

The City of Urbana Administrator, Carol Mitten has announced that due to predicted weather conditions, the City of Urbana business offices will be closed on Thursday, December 22, 2022. The City's essential services of public safety – which includes snow removal – will be in full operation. Additionally, the Landscape Recycling Center will be closed on Thursday, December 22, 2022, so please plan accordingly.

The National Weather Service – Lincoln Office has issued a winter storm warning that is effective tomorrow through early Saturday, with forecasts of 2-5 inches of snow, severe wind gusts of upwards to 50 miles per hour, and dangerous wind chill temperatures that could go as low as –30 degrees Fahrenheit.

Please stay home if possible, but if the need to travel is imperative, check Illinois road conditions here: <https://www.gettingaroundillinois.com/winterconditions/>.

Please note that the City of Urbana business offices will also be closed on Friday, December 23, 2022, and Monday, December 26, 2022, in observance of Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, respectively. They will reopen on Tuesday, December 27 for regular operation.
